Product Marketing

Bring your food to life with a squeeze of Hellmann's Tomato Ketchup 430 ml. Over 100 years ago, Richard Hellmann created the perfect mayonnaise in a deli in New York. When he wrote REAL on a jar all those years ago, it was the beginning of something big. Today, it's a word that's essential to everything we do. He also proudly marked each jar by tying a blue ribbon around it, a tradition which endures on our label to highlight our ongoing commitment to great quality products. We believe in real food, made with real, simple ingredients. That's why we only use sustainably grown tomatoes to make Hellmann's Tomato Ketchup 430 ml.

Featuring a gluten-free recipe and packaged in a handy squeeze bottle, this tomato ketchup is the perfect sauce to pass around at a dinner party, BBQ, or any other occasion. It's a classic – squeeze it on a beef burger, spread it on a bacon butty, or dip your chips into it and experience the delicious tomato-y goodness of Hellmann's Ketchup.

The real secret to this sauce is that it brings together even the simplest ingredients you have at home to create flavourful dishes. Why not squeeze onto a chicken burger, add a saucy twist to a jacket potato, or whip up a plate of mozzarella dippers to team with it?

Make taste, not waste. Globally, 1/3 of all food produced is wasted. Hellmann's helps you to be more resourceful with food. Also, our squeeze bottles are recyclable – please, do your part and recycle both the bottle and the cap.
